Could you please tell us now in your own words, how you have found Care for Me as a Homecare Company? How was the carer who looked after you/ your loved one? Was the contact with the Office / Manager a nice experience? And would you recommend Care for Me to other people who you may or may not know?

Thank you for the opportunity to evaluate "Care for Me". As we are visiting from Australia and have only had contact with Dad's primary carer, we cannot comment on the general standard of the administration of your organisation but my brother who lives in Dublin is more than happy with your service.

We would like to comment on Dad's primary carer - Kirsty Dillon.

Kirsty is one of those rare people who has the ability to combine total efficiency with gentle care. She has a lovely nature, is always on time, works very hard, manages her time well and gets on with the job but still always has time for a chat with Dad or to attend to an additional request.

Dad has a very restricted diet due to kidney problems. I experimented and created some dishes using around 18 ingredients (Dad isn't allowed salt so it's hard to add flavour). I thought Kirsty would balk at the complicated dishes but she cheerfully entered into the quest to add some flavour to Dad's menu & made some great suggestions to enhance the flavour.

Besides doing a wonderful job in the kitchen, Kirsty is a very proactive person and while we were away for a week during the hot weather, she watered all the new flowers we had planted. The old expression "if you want something done ask a busy person" is validated in Kirsty's approach to her work. → over.

She constantly finishes her allocated tasks about 30 minutes before she leaves and then looks around to find anything else which need attention.

Kirsty displays motivation, problem solving and caring skills. She also has a lovely nature + a down to earth approach to her job.

She is a huge asset to your organisation.

We sincerely hope that if you have a development program for your junior staff that you will include Kirsty. She certainly deserves it.

Should you wish to contact us further then please email us at PaulineMurphy8@gmail.com

Thank you for providing such a wonderful person to look after Dad.
